he expected the Republicans would be called in to-morrow, and Senator Harris, a Democratic conferree, said to another Senator that an agreement was in sight All who say anything about the bill decline to discuss details, but indicate that concessions have been made. One was to be free and from ore fixed at 40 cents, as in the Senate bill. Another report twisted this around the other way and put a sliding scale duty on coal.

Time for Something Definite.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. S.—Senators
Jones and Vest, of the Tariff Conference Committee, and Senators Gorman and Smith, acting on behalf of the conservative Senators, held a meeting to day, previous to the convening of the conference, and it is understood that they decided that the time had arrived when the conference should come to an end, either by an agreement or a disagreement, and that they arranged a programme for bringing about this re

This programme, as detailed, was to have the Senate conferrees do their ut most to secure an agreement at the morning conference, and, in case of failure to urge that a disagreement be reported without further delay; and, House members to this plan, for the Senate conferrees to go into the Senate and ask to be discharged from further consideration of the tariff bill in confer-

Results Fatally.

She Was 86 Years Old and Deaf-

Mrs. Kate Sticklen, eighty-six years was run over and fatally injured thi morning on the Boulevard, between Sev entleth and Seventy-first streets, by Richard Katz, eighteen years old, of 711 Columbus avenue.

Katz was racing with Louis Pils, driver of a grocery wagon, and was flying up the Boulevard at a very rapid ace. Mrs. Sticklen attempted to cros pace. Mrs. Sticklen attempted to cross the street at Seveniy-first street and did not notice the approaching wagons. Bystanders called out to her, but she was hard of hearing and paid no attention to them. Kats's horse struck her. rolled her over on the pavement and the wheels passed over her breast. The race continued, Kats not even looking back. Policeman Muicaty, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, called to him to stop, and at the same time jumped into a light wagon belonging to Contractor McLaughlin and gave chase. The policeman was being left far in the rear when a large truck backed into the centre of the street, completely obstructing the way. Kats was obliged to stop and was placed under arrest with Pils.

(0.30 o'clock.

Kats was arraigned at Yorkville Po-lice Court and held without bail. He said he had an unmanageable horse and did not see Mrs. Sticklen. Pils was fined $16 for reckless driving.
